Re: United States v. Thomas Baker
20 Cr. 288 (LJL)

11/29/2021 SO ORDERED.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge

Dear Judge Liman:

I am counsel for Defendant Thomas Baker. Mr. Baker is scheduled to be sentenced on November 30, 2021. I write to respectfully request that the sentencing in this matter be adjourned to December 21 or December 22, 2021, and that the dates for sentencing submissions be adjusted to allow for my client to submit his own letter to the Court. There has been one prior requests for an adjournment of sentencing.

I seek the adjournment at the express request of my client, who emailed me this morning to inform me I will soon be receiving the letter he wishes to submit to the Court in connection with his sentencing. The Government has no objection.

I thank the Court for its consideration of this request, and apologize for this untimely request.
